25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT: Biweekly Report #4-65: The Defense Intelligence School (DIS)
6 February - 19 February 1965

1. This report highlights the Attaché trip to Baltimore, where I joined them for a part of the exercise.

2. New Requirements:

a. Materiel:

(1) I have had a request for material on elicitation. The OCR film library has done a search of film on this subject. [redacted] has obtained permission for me to pass, for Attaché Course use only, [redacted] paper on this subject. [redacted] is presently pulling these papers together for me.

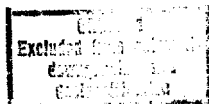

(2) I have had a request from the Strategic Intelligence Course (SIC) for additional copies of "Studies in Intelligence." [redacted] is gathering these together for me.

b. Personnel:

(1) Additional requirements for assistance in the Advanced Intelligence Course (AIC) have been given me. Most of these new requirements fit the pattern of our support in the past. Entirely new requirements cover requests for presentations on "Intelligence [redacted] an Intelligence Product Exhibit at DIS, and a visitation of a small group of students to one of the DDI Production Staffs. I am presently discussing these requirements with appropriate officers.

(2) I had planned to present a lecture on [redacted] Intelligence Operations" to the DIC on 1 April. Because of my change of assignment, [redacted] has agreed to permit [redacted] who presents this subject in the Ops Support Course, to make this presentation.

25X1 3. Materiel Support: No significant materiel support has been provided during this period. [redacted] of the Collection Guidance Staff (CGS) asked me to acquaint the DIS with the Current Intelligence Requirements List (CIRL), a recent publication of theirs. I have done this and the DIS is presently evaluating this publication in terms of their needs.

4. Agency Presentations:

25X1 a. 8 February - Defense Intelligence Course (DIC) - [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] Intelligence and Security Services. This was an excellent presentation, professionally presented and substantively sound. It fit the needs of the DIC exactly and was very well received by the DIC students and staff.

25X1 b. 8 February - [redacted] Soviet Non-Technical Approaches. I was unable to monitor this presentation, but the Attaché Course monitor advised me that this was consistent with 25X1 [redacted] earlier standards of excellence.

25X1 c. 9 February - DIC - [redacted] - South Vietnam Intelligence and Security Services. A competent, well-handled presentation. This was [redacted] first appearance at the school and 25X1 his efforts were soundly applauded by the class. [redacted] not only had a fine grasp of his subject but he also presented it well. He has a nice, easy informal stage presence that tends to hold his audience. All in all, a highly commendable presentation.

25X1 d. 12 February - DIC - [redacted] Intel-
25X1 ligence and Security Services. [redacted] in his second appearance before the DIC, made his usually fine presentation, displaying not only a good grasp of the specific subject but also an excellent background on the subject of [redacted] politics. This lecture was warmly received by the DIC students and staff.

25X1 e. 16 February - [redacted] - Observation
25X1 and Sketching. [redacted] was originally scheduled to appear on 25X1 11 February, the day of the [redacted] He was not able to get here because of weather. He was rescheduled for this date because of student needs for this presentation prior to their Baltimore exercise scheduled 17-18 February. To meet this schedule, 25X1 [redacted] came up by bus (costs met by the DIS). His presentation, which included an outdoor exercise, was effective and professionally handled. The DIS was especially pleased with the extra effort made to meet their needs. My especial thanks to 25X1 [redacted] for going beyond the line of duty to support this effort.

25X1 f. 17 February - DIC [] - The Soviet Nuclear 25X1 Program. I was unable to monitor this presentation, nor have I yet had a feedback on this. [] presentation in the past has been considered a course highlight.

5. Agency Presentations for Period Ending 5 March 1965:

Note: During this next period, all Agency presentations are in the new Advanced Intelligence Course (AIC).

a. 1 March - AIC - Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick - The Nature and Significance of Intelligence.

25X1 b. 5 March - AIC [] The National Security Structure.

25X1 c. 5 March - AIC [] The United States Intelligence Board.

6. Miscellaneous Intelligence:

a. I joined the Attachés for the late afternoon and evening of their exercise in Baltimore on 17 February. It was well worth the effort in terms of the closer relationship with the Attachés during this period. It gave them an opportunity to ask questions which, for one reason or another, they had not asked previously. I returned on Thursday morning, 18 February, to continue my briefings with []

25X1 b. The cost for [] bus transportation on 25X1 16 February, paid for by the DIS, is the only expense the DIS has had in the past 18 months for the support provided by CIA.

25X1 []
CIA Faculty Advisor, DIS
